

GOING UP—The walls for the new auditorium and band hall are beginning to take shape as most of the brick work has been finished on the Middle School. The new Hamlin Public School auditorium is scheduled to be completed sometime next spring. Bennett Construction Company of Brownwood is general contractor for the project.

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

The Denver Post recently carried an excellent article on garage sales. It referred to them as a "Slice of U.S. Life." As American as apple pie? Maybe the slogan should be "as American as a garage sale." Just about the whole spectrum of living hangs out at a garage sale — youth, age, and one's status in life.

Hamlin is no exception, garage sales are a popular way of life for the affluent and the less fortunate. Some day if you have the time, get a good look at an American way of life — visit the garage sales you'll find listed in the Herald each Thursday.

Perhaps garage sales reveal the inner desire of most people to deal in the market place. Youngsters sell their worldly treasures: an old baseball glove, a fishing reel that doesn't work, a rusty hunting knife.

The elderly disperse their accumulation of a lifetime, much of it meaningful to them, most of it meaning something only to them.

You run into young matrons sitting on boxes, big straw hats, sipping coffee and giving customers a cheerful hard-sell on behalf of the tables of clothing, dishes, other bric-a-brac scattered about.

Now and then you run into a fat man sitting amidst a lot of junk — envisioning himself as a Missouri horse trader as he tests his techniques.

It's all there in the garage sale and it's best to be philosophical. We are creatures of our garage sales and, in a sense, they feed on each other. They mushroom from time to time then abate until it's time to hold another one. The process has no stopping place and is now considered an integral part of the American scene. . .

The Dallas Cowboys have been making big headlines this past week with their "battle" of the quarterbacks. We don't know who is right and who is wrong in the battle of words that have followed the battle of the fists and don't figure it makes much difference.

Roger Staubach will be the Cowboy quarterback and we hope that Clint Longley learned something in college besides playing football because we suspect he is going to need it now. He may get to play for someone else but we doubt it.

We don't know what the fine is for two players fighting during workouts but suspect that coach Tom Landry has something in his system of fines to take care of such incidents.

In case you are not familiar with the profession football fine system

Second Bid Opening Held for Apartments

A second bid opening was held here Friday by the Hamlin Housing Authority for the construction of the 14-unit apartment complex being planned. Two bids were submitted during this second opening with North Construction Company of Hurst submitting the low bid.

The second bid opening was brought about when only one bidder showed for the bid opening here Tuesday, July 27. Rouse and Son, Inc. of Abilene submitted a bid of $195,000 at this time which was about $17,000 above the money allotted by the Farmers Home Administration for the project.

At the request of the Farmers Home Administration, the local Housing Authority rejected the first bid and advertised for new bids.

In the second opening, North Construction Company submitted the low bid of $181,000.00. The only other bid was by Rouse and Son, Inc., who bid $189,000.00 this time.

The Hamlin Housing Authority is currently waiting on the Farmers Home Administration for approval of the project.

Work is expected to get underway as soon as the contractor is awarded the contract.

Architects for the project are Pierce, Pace and Associates of Midland.

Plans call for four one-bedroom apartments and 10 two-bedroom apartments. The one-bedroom apartments and three of the two-bedroom apartments would be located on Southwest Ave. A behind the post office and the other seven two-bedroom apartments would be located just south of Holiday Lodge on Southwest Ave. F. The units would be two units at each location.

The budget for the coming campaign was increased from last year's budget of $9,000 to $14,000. The new budget reflects the amount of money raised last year.

Joe Ford and Sammy Ferguson have been named to head the Advance Division and will open their campaign Oct. 4.

The business division will open Oct. 11 with Luther Haught and Mrs. Robert Fowler serving as chairmen. Larry McCoy and Milburn Wink will head the farmers division and will start their campaign on Oct. 11.

Heading the employees division will be Mrs. Luther Haught and Pat Willoughby and they will open their campaign on Oct. 18. Bob Hawes will again head the school division with the kickoff also set for Oct. 18.

The house to house division will be under the direction of Mrs. Roy Pritchard and Mrs. Bobby Stubblefield and they will begin their campaign on Oct. 25. The $14,000 budget includes the following: Arthritis Foundation, $300; Cystic Fibrosis, $500; Birth Defects, $350; West Texas Rehabilitation Center, $2,000; Cancer Research, $750; Salvation Army, $1,000; Heart Research, $350; Summer Recreation Program, $840; Summer Baseball (boys and girls), $1,500; Hamlin Child Care Center, $2,200; Boy Scouts, $1,000; Girl Scouts, $1,000; Local Scouting, $750; Hamlin Stock Show, $750; Campaign expenses and Texas United Community Services, $350; and bookkeeping salary, $360.

Booster Club Sets Ice Cream Supper Tuesday

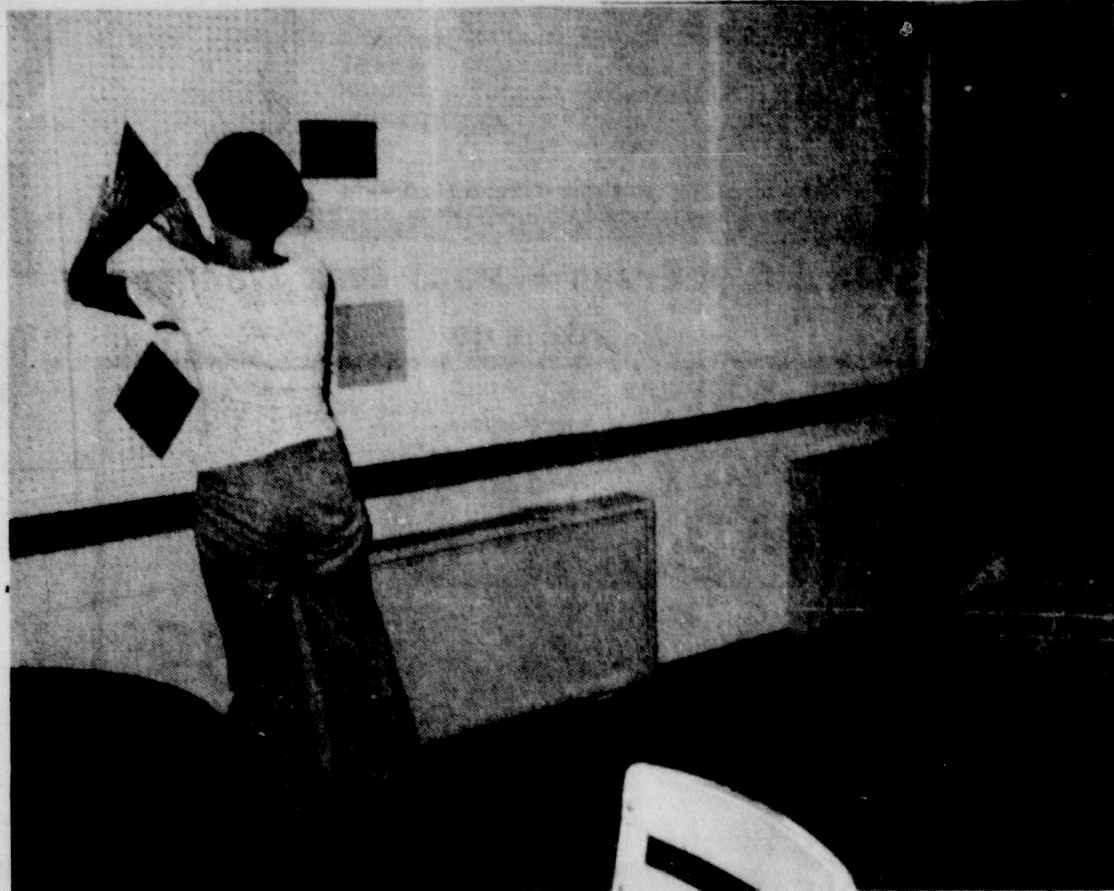

A "Meet the Pipers and their Parents" night will be held Tuesday evening at the high school cafeteria by the Pled Piper Booster Club. The event will feature homemade ice cream and all booster club members and parents are urged to attend the meeting, according to Archie Tomlinson.

Members of the booster club will be contacting mothers to bring the ice cream. A film of the Colorado City scrimmage will be shown.

The Booster Club agreed to run the concession stand this year for all football games at their meeting Tuesday evening and final plans will be made Tuesday to open for the Merkel scrimmage here Friday, Aug. 27.

The club is also making plans to host a barbecue dinner in the stadium for the Merkel scrimmage with the tickets priced at $2.50 per plate.

Booster Club memberships are now being sold at $5.00 per family and will be available Tuesday night and again Friday night.

GETTING READY FOR SCHOOL—Hamlin teachers were busy this week getting ready for school opening Monday. Mrs. Greg Lievan was busy Tuesday redecorating her room following the remodeling work done this summer to the primary building. The pegboard wall replaces the windows in the building and the two new air conditioning and heating units can be seen in the room just below the pegboard.

Back to School Monday For Hamlin Youngsters

It's back to school Monday for Hamlin youngsters with all classes starting at 8:30. It will be a regular school day with busses running their regular routes and the cafeterias in full operation. Teachers started getting ready for the Monday opening this week as they started a full week of in-service training Monday morning.

High school students are to report today (Thursday) for registration with the seniors reporting between 9 and 10:30. The juniors will report between 10:30 and noon, sophomores between 1 and 2:30 p.m. and freshmen between 2:30 and 4 p.m. Eighth graders, who will be housed in the high school building again this year, will report for registration between 9 and 10:30 Friday at the high school.

These students will pick up their schedules, their books, and be assigned lockers during this time. All other students will wait and report on Monday.

Because of a state ruling, no student will be charged any fees this year and all workbooks will be furnished by the school district. Luncheon prices this year will be the same as last year:

pre-kindergarten through grade five, 60 cents; grades six through 12, 70 cents.

McCaulley Schools To Open Monday

School will open in the McCaulley Independent School District Monday at 8:30 a.m. Busses will run their regular route on Monday and the cafeteria will also be in operation on the first day of school.

All students that have not pre-registered for their classes will register on Monday. Monday will be a short day with the students being dismissed at 2:30 p.m., all other days the students will be dismissed at 3:30 p.m.

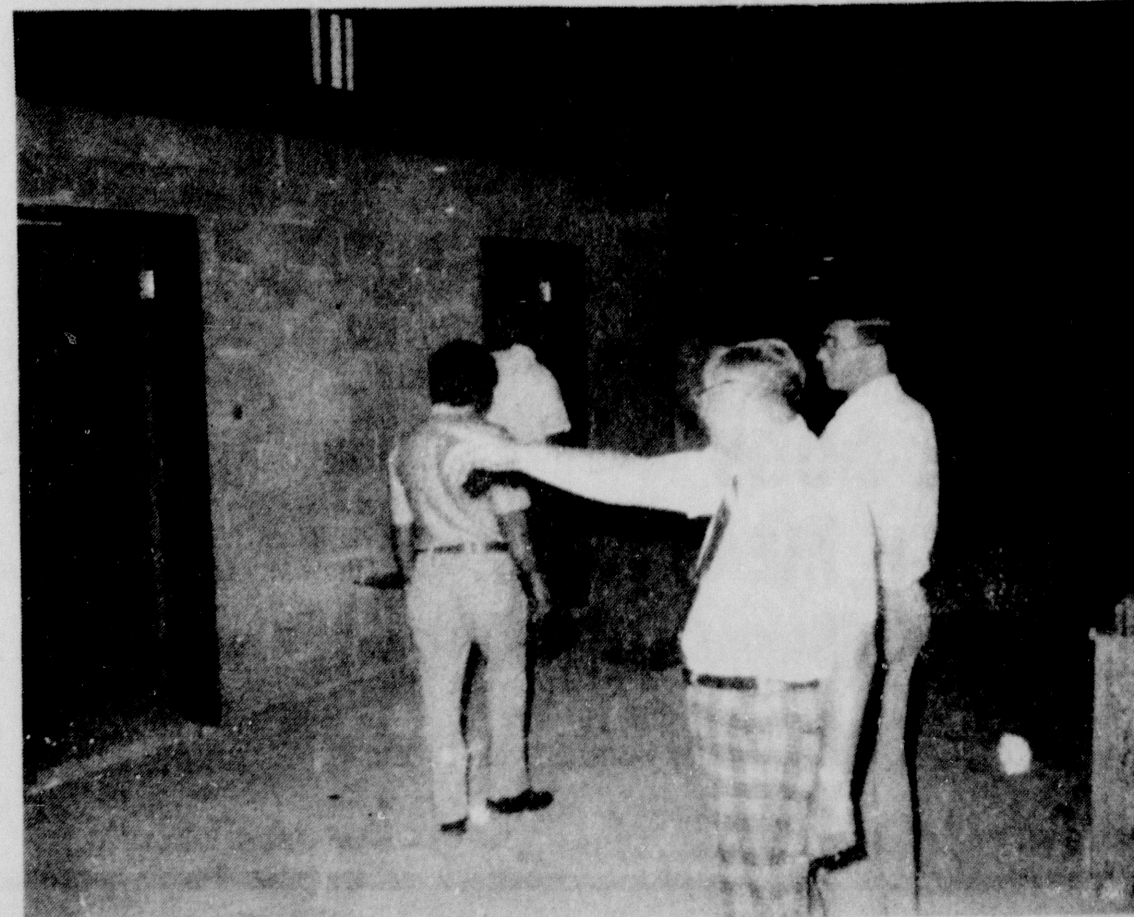

Prior to the opening of the McCaulley ISD has been involved in in-service training covering a wide range of educational topics that will help them in the coming school year. Topics included: crime prevention and drug education, reading, math, goal setting, motivation, etc.

New staff members at McCaulley include: Doyle Bell, administrative assistant, Jamie K. Bell, first and second grade teacher, and Fayma Drummond, seventh and eighth grade teacher.

During the summer months a considerable amount of work has taken place in the McCaulley system. Painting, remodeling, and air conditioning of the classrooms have all been completed. This will provide a better learning situation of the students.

"We would like to take this opportunity to invite parents and other interested persons to visit the McCaulley School during the 1976-77 school year," the administration stated.

YOUTH MISSIONARY MOVEMENT— Marshall Bond Shares His Faith At Olympics

Marshall Lee Bond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvis M. Bond, was one of 1600 persons who went to the Montreal Summer Olympics with a unique purpose—to share his Christian faith with as many athletes, trainers and world visitors as possible.

Bond, who attended Christ for the Nations Institute in Dallas, resides in Tyler where he is a part of the Youth with a Mission, an interdenominational youth missionary movement.

Headquartered in the tiny village of Dunham, 60 miles southeast of Montreal, the Youth with a Mission volunteers, often called "YWAM's" were young and older people from 53 nations who spoke 50 languages among them.

The YWAM's were a contrast to the Olympics going on in the city. Whereas black nations pulled out of the Games over racial issues, black and white South Africans along with other races, shared their living quarters, their food and their prayers. Seventy-three Egyptians flew in for the effort, using the opportunity to share their personal faith in Jesus with everyone they met—including Israelis. Coming from many denominations and religious backgrounds, the YWAM evangelists found unity in their belief that Jesus' last command for His followers to take the Gospel to every person is to be literally obeyed.

Their attempt to do this among the "world in miniature" at the Games included one-to-one dialogue, coffee houses, street theatre, special music groups and extensive literature distribution. One eager believer was privileged to give one of the papers to Prime Minister Trudeau—most Gospel leaflets were given to the many thousands of visitors and Montreal residents taking in the special events of the XXI Olympiad.

Some Russian-speaking YWAM volunteers were able to go aboard Russian ships docked in Montreal Harbor, distributing Bibles and discussing their faith with some of the Soviet athletes and visitors. Some of these eagerly received Bibles in their language, since they are rare and expensive in the U.S.S.R.

The 1600 volunteers with YWAM joined with 1300 other Christians in Montreal from such organizations as Campus Crusade for Christ, Salvation Army, and Moody Science Films for evangelism during the Games. In addition, at least 21 athletes competing in the Olympics were active Christians, some of which distributed Bibles to other athletes. John Naber, a committed Christian from the U.S., won four gold medals and one silver in the swimming competition. After one gold medal was placed around his neck he flashed the familiar "One Way" salute of many Christians—the index finger pointing heavenward.

Bond reports that many of the 1600 YWAM volunteers are already looking ahead to the challenging prospect of evangelizing at the Moscow Olympics in 1980.

How To Buy And Care For Pillows

Pillows are an important part of getting your proper rest, so you would do well to select yours with care—and care for it well.

Test a pillow before you buy it. Feel it with your hand, then put your head against it. Test it to see how it will feel to sleep on. A good pillow should be resilient and have no lumps or odors.

Check the label to see what your prospective pillow contains. Pillows are filled with different materials and this will make a difference in price and comfort. The softest and most luxurious pillow is made entirely of down, the soft, shaftless fluffs from the breasts of ducks and geese. For people who prefer their pillows firmer, there are pillows that are feather and down blends. The more feathers in the blend, the firmer the pillow will be. The feather pillows will be the firmest of the naturals. Pillows are also made of polyester or foam rubber and these also tend to be firm. Feather and down pillows are considered a good investment because they will give you restful comfort for a long time.

Pillows also come in different sizes. You can choose from a standard, queen or king. What you select will depend on the size of your bed and how many pillows you like on it.

USE YOUR HEAD when picking a pillow—and caring for it afterwards.

After you've purchased your pillow, keep it plump by fluffing it daily and pushing the corners towards the center so that the crown stays high. One tip that will help keep your feather and down pillows fresh is to pop them into the dryer every month or so on low heat for ten minutes. This will take out the humidity and keep the pillows resilient.

To launder your pillow check the care label for the right washing and drying instructions and follow them carefully. Laundering your

FIFTY YEARS AGO

(August 20, 1926)
The Hamlin School Board has authorized the Hamlin school to be opened Monday, September 6th.
Here long every city, town and hamlet in Texas will be given new life and zest by the beginning of renewed school activities. The summer vacation school weeks will soon be ended. School days should then be welcomed and received with that degree of enthusiasm and vivacity so essential to happiness and success. School life is not a bore and a grind unless teachers, pupils and patrons make it such. School life should be an attractive and enjoyable life. School days should be happy days. They are such for those who endeavor so to make them.
Advertisement for Gibson Chevrolet Co. of Hamlin this week reads: . . . at these low prices! Touring or Roadster $510; Coach or Coupe $645; Four Door Sedan $735; Landau $765.
The Blue Bird Bridge Club met with Mrs. P. A. Fowler Wednesday afternoon. Pretty summer flowers adorned the rooms where three tables were at play. Mrs. Prater won high score and Mrs. Bledsoe held high for the Club.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(August 23, 1956)
Nearly half a million dollars will be spent on a major highway improvement program from Hamlin to Aspermont, a distance of approximately 20 miles.
The work was authorized last week when the contract for the project on U. S. Highway 83 in Stonewall, Fisher and Jones Counties was awarded to Ivan Dement of Amarillo on a low bid of $463,946.93 by the Texas Highway Commission at Austin.
C. W. Wesbrooks, resident engineer at Hamlin, will be in active charge of the project while under construction.
Hamlin territory, probably like most of the nation, has been buzzing with varied reactions to the political conventions which were underway last week and this at Chicago and San Francisco.
Many conservative Democrats will shun Adlai Stevenson and vote for Dwight Eisenhower again this year, it was indicated.
On the state level the race for governor of Texas has held top interest. U. S. Senator Price Daniel is being pushed by Ralph Yarborough, who twice before has been defeated for the post. Daniel led Yarborough by a big vote in the first primary that eliminated four others.
Of course, the only local race of interest is that for sheriff, in which Sheriff Dave Reeves, serving his second term, is being contested by O. D. (Doyle) Woody. Reeves lacked less than 200 votes getting a majority over two opponents in the first primary in July.
Fall training camp for football boys of Hamlin High School will open Monday morning, with as twice-daily work-out schedule according to Head Coach Truman Nix.
Daily schedule for the boys will be as follows: Arise at 5:45 a.m.; on the field at 6 a.m.; workout to 8 a.m.; breakfast at the cafeteria at 8:30; skull practice, 10 to 11 a.m. Boys living in town will eat lunch in their homes, and those living in the country will eat lunch at the cafe.
Members of the varsity crew will have skull practice from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. The B team boys who are not attending the camp will report for work-outs at 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. The varsity will then work out from 4:30 to 6:30 (weather permitting). Dinner will be served at the cafeteria, and lights will go out at 9:30 p.m.

TEN YEARS AGO

(August 18, 1966)
At the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Hamlin Independent School District, Monday evening the budget of $460,382 for the 1966-67 school year was approved and Jackie Williams of Neinda was named to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Richard Young Jr.
Other members of the Board are Bill Harbert, president; Joe Hudspeth, vice president; Dr. M. L. Smith, secretary; Dr. James Harrison, J. E. McCoy, Lewis E. Madden.
The Hamlin Elementary School, first through eighth grades, has received approval for the remedial reading program for the 1966-67 school year, according to Supt.

C. F. Cook. The amount granted under this program is $26,507. This amount is only 85 percent of last year's grant.
There will be two class room teachers and four teachers aides employed under this act. This program will start as soon after August 29 as possible. Mrs. Guy Weaver and Mrs. Pat Hughes have been employed to formulate this program again this year. Mrs. Bill Shira and Mrs. Johnny Steele are the aides.
Milburn Wink, local vocational agriculture teacher was elected Area II Public Relations Chairman for the coming year at an Area II meeting during the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas conference last week in Fort Worth.
Wink received the association's Distinguished Service Award for newspaper and magazine work. To receive this award Wink competed against the other teachers in the Area II organization and was named the best in Area II.
The officers of the Hamlin Ex-Student Association met Tuesday Aug. 7 to discuss the progress of their preparations for the forthcoming Homecoming to be October 7-8.
Those present were President James Wright, Vice-president Jerry Williams, Secretary-treasurer Mrs. David Wade, Program chairman Mrs. Kenneth Riddel, Secretaries Mrs. Garland Preston, Mrs. Robert Fowler and Mrs. Mack Sellers, and Reporter Carol Joe Simpson.

Professional athletes recognize one thing perhaps more than anything else, and that's money. So the way to get their attention for violating the rules is to sock them in the pocketbook.
At the Dallas Cowboy training camp in Thousand Oaks, Calif., coach Landry has a lot of fines which he levies on the Cowboys. For example, a player's helmet must never touch the ground. If it does, it will cost him $25. Helmets off during drills or chinstraps unfastened, even when doing push-ups, bring similar $25 fines. Players are fined $25 for every pound they are overweight. There's a $50 fine for being late to meetings, practice, or a trainer's or doctor's appointment. There's a $100 tag for being late for any scheduled transportation.
The Cowboys have a curfew at training camp and each player must be in his room by 11 p.m. Anyone not in place at bed check time gets a $100 fine for the first 15 minutes they are absent. Each additional 15 minutes is worth another $100. Any Cowboy who suffers a sprained ankle without protective wraps is fined $250. If a player loses his playbook the fine is $1,000. All of these fines are doubled for each subsequent offense.
There are fines for leaving the bench during a fight in a game, for throwing the ball into the stands and for being thrown out of a game. The money goes into what is called the Thomas Henderson Fine Fund. The second year Cowboy linebacker got the dubious honor of having it named after him reportedly because he was fined a total of $1,500 in one game last year.

In all ways of life, keep him swinging in the proper

STRIKE ZONE

PLAY BALL . . . is a familiar cry in the spring and summer. This is a time that parents and coaches, alike, encourage the boy not to swing unless the ball is in the strike zone . . . for in the early years of playing the game, the tendency is to swing at every pitch. This holds true in all of life, so it is up to wiser and older heads to train and encourage him in the better things. Bringing up a child is a serious matter and all can use help. Let the church help you to teach him the right ways.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Rep. Martin Supports New Highway Funding

State Rep. Elmer Martin announced today that he will support the $398 million highway funding program revealed by Governor Dolph Briscoe.

"The Governor has developed a way to improve our highway program without a higher gasoline tax or new taxes of any kind," Martin said.

"It is a sensible program to solve one of our state's most critical problems," the Colorado City legislator continued.

Martin pointed out that the elements of Briscoe's plan involve increasing the Texas Highway Fund by dedicating present sales taxes on motor vehicles, tires, tubes, auto parts and accessories to this fund and by realigning the priorities and expenditures of the existing highway fund revenues.

"Texans who pay road-use taxes would be able to see those taxes used for better and safer roads and bridges, as they should be," Martin said.

Martin noted that the entire Texas economy depends on a good system of transportation because of the size of the state and the wide dispersal of population.

Ned Moore Gets Master's Degree

Ned Moore, Sweetwater High School art instructor and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Moore of Hamlin, has received his master's degree this summer from the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley, Colo.

His thesis was "Hunting and Fishing in West Texas." He has 10 years of experience as an art teacher and received a bachelor of arts degree after attending Texas A & M University, the University of Houston and McMurry College.

Moore presently has a painting, "Indians," among the 15 mural-effect paintings hung on chapel walls of the new museum in Sweetwater. The original artworks of the Bicentennial Collection are by Sweetwater artists.

Open house at The Pioneer Museum was held Sunday featuring the Bicentennial Collection. The art-history project includes the 15 paintings of uniform height of four feet with widths varying from three to eight feet.

Sixth, Seventh Registration

All sixth and seventh grade students will register today (Thursday) at the junior high building on Northwest Ave. E. according to Principal Larry Butler.

The seventh grade students will register from 1 to 2:30 p.m. and the sixth grade students will report from 2:30 to 4 p.m. for registration.

New students to the district must have a clearance from their previous school and all pertinent records before they will be allowed to enroll, Butler cautioned.

Free, Reduced Price Meals Policy Adopted By School

Hamlin Public Schools has announced its policy for free meals, reduced price meals, and free milk for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch and Special Milk Programs.

Local school officials have adopted a family sized income criteria for determining eligibility.

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels are eligible for free meals or reduced price meals and—or free milk.

In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being given to students as they register for school. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at anytime during the year.

In certain cases, foster children are eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, the family should contact the school.

In the operation of the child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

Under the provisions of the policy, school principals will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may make a request either orally or in writing to Superintendent of Schools, Bob Hawes, Box 338, Hamlin, or phone 576-2722 for a hearing to appeal the decision.

The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure. Each school and the office of the superintendent of schools has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

Western Texas Offering Extension Plan At Rotan

SNYDER—Western Texas College has announced a new long-range plan for the Rotan extension campus.

The new plan emphasizes offering specific courses at given times over a long-range period to allow students enrolled at the Rotan extension campus to earn the Associate in Arts degree in a two-year period by consecutive attendance, including summer classes.

All classes will be offered in the evenings and the majority of courses, including most of the basic requirements for graduation, will be offered at the Rotan center.

According to Dr. Duane Hood, Dean of Student Services and Registrar, the new plan will offer the required courses within a two-year time span. The plan is coordinated to course offerings on the Snyder campus and can be used by all university parallel students by careful planning of course work in advance. The plan is especially designed so that students may enter the program during any one semester and complete the program in two years. After two years, the program begins a new cycle.

Registration for fall classes is scheduled from 6:30-8 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 25, in the Rotan High School library. Registration for classes at the Haskell extension campus will be held in the Haskell High School on the same night.

Further information about the Rotan classes may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Pat Hamric at 735-3041. Bill Blakley is the Haskell coordinator and may be contacted at 864-2848. Dr. Hood's office on the Snyder campus has complete schedules of all classes offered at extension centers as well as in Snyder.

Classes at all WTC extension centers begin Sept. 1.

Wink Nominated for Honorary FFA Degree

Milburn Wink, vocational agriculture instructor and Future Farmers of America advisor at Hamlin High School, has been nominated to receive the FFA's Honorary American Farmer Degree. Wink was nominated for the Degree by the Texas FFA Association and the nomination was approved by the National FFA Board of Directors which recently met in Alexandria, Va.

The Honorary American Farmer Degree is the highest honorary degree presented by the FFA. This year 81 teachers of vocational agriculture have been nominated to receive the degree during the National FFA convention in Kansas City, Mo.

Wink has been a vocational agriculture teacher in Hamlin for 17 years. During this time he has had five students who earned the American Farmer degree, 32 students who received the State Farmer Degree and 12 students who earned state proficiency awards.

Each year at least 50 of the 11,500 teachers of vocational agriculture in the nation are awarded the Honorary American Farmer Degree. The Degree is awarded on the basis of points scored by a teacher for his accomplishments as a vocational agriculture instructor, FFA Advisor, and as a participant in professional vocational agriculture teachers' organizations.

Teachers are awarded points for each student they supervised in earning state and national FFA awards. Teachers also receive points for serving as officers and committee members of the National Vocational Agriculture Teachers' Association and for their participation in national meetings of the FFA and other professional associations.

Wink is one of 10 vocational agriculture teachers from Texas to be nominated for the Honorary American Farmer Degree this year. He plans to attend the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., on Nov. 9-12 where he will be presented the degree pending final approval of the nomination by the student FFA delegates who must vote on all honorary presentations of the National FFA Organization. The degree is presented during the Thursday afternoon session of the convention.

WILL BE TWO AT UT THIS FALL—

Which Johnny Jones Do You Mean ?

(Editor's note: The following column by Bob Galt recently appeared in the Dallas Times Herald and should be of interest to Hamlin sports fans.)

The Jones Boys of 1 Royal Place
By Bob Galt

While Johnny Jones was doing his Olympic sprint thing, Johnny Jones was loading and unloading furniture and answering a lot of questions about Johnny Jones.

Beggin' your pardon if that comes on a bit confusing, but consider it a conditioning drill. Johnny Jones and Johnny Jones will be mentioned a lot in the same paragraph in the coming months. And this does present a problem for us word merchants covering the Southwest Conference football scene.

As you may know by now, the University of Texas will have two halfbacks this fall named Johnny Jones, and there are sure to be occasions when both will be in a game at the same time. When you hear people talk of Darrell Royal having his best outside speed in history, they're aiming their stopwatches toward the Jones boys, Johnny and Johnny.

One has had a giant share of local headlines in recent days. He's the Olympic sprinter who Saturday ran a leg on the United States' winning 400-meter relay team. He'll be bringing a gold medal with him to Austin in a couple of weeks when he enrolls as a freshman.

The other Johnny Jones is a sophomore whose 1975 activities were slowed by injury. He played in only three games, the last being the Bluebonnet Bowl against Colorado. Before getting his bell rung, Jones made some amazing moves on a swing pass for a 30 yard gain, picked up 33 yards on eight carries and scored a touchdown. Longhorn fans were saying, "Where has he been all year?"

Royal already has solved any paging problems with the Jones boys. He has changed their last names to the names of their hometowns. The Olympic sprinter will be Johnny Lampasas and the other Johnny Hamlin. Johnny Lampasas? Sounds more like a bad guy with a quick gun in a B western. And Johnny Hamlin? He's a pianist-composer with a couple of Broadway scores to his credit.

There is a difference in their size. The Olympic hero is 6-0 and 175 while the Hamlin product is 5-9 and 175. It may be necessary to strain the eyesight a bit to identify them by numbers. The sophomore will be wearing No. 25, the other No. 26. If you go by full signatures, the sprinter is Johnny W. Jones, the other Johnny L.

To complicate matters a bit, coming in with the freshman class will be two running backs named Johnson. One is Jimmy, the other Johnnie. There also are three Campbell brothers on the team, fullback Earl, defensive end Tim and linebacker Steve. And the defensive coach is Mike Campbell.

The Jones boy not involved in the Olympics has spent his summer in Hamlin working for a furniture store.

"I've sure had a lot of questions about that other Johnny Jones," he said, after expressing surprise that anyone would be interested in talking to a Johnny Jones not in the Olympics. "I tell 'em he's a super fast dude and a real nice guy. We talked a lot when he visited the school, messed around a little together. He's real cool. I like him."

Jones has received some kidding. "Some people have said with him on the team and so fast and all I'd probably end up being the waterboy."

Jones was a high school Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Coleman are parents of a boy, Roy Lester, 6 lbs. 10 oz., born Aug. 15 at 12:30 p.m. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hunter. Paternal grandparents are Lily Mae Coleman of Albuquerque, N. M., and the late Mr. Bennie Coleman.

Oak Grove Sets Dinner Sunday

The Deaconess Board of Oak Grove Baptist Church will sponsor a dinner Sunday, beginning at 12 o'clock, according to Ruth Bussey, president.

The menu will include turkey and dressing, fresh black-eyed peas, okra and corn, giblet gravy, fruit salad, hot rolls, assorted pies and iced tea.

Price per plate will be $2.25.
The public is invited.

"I have promises to keep."

Power lines of the rural electric cooperative are often lonely ones because, in Texas, they serve an average of only three meters per mile of line. Now, inflation, fuel shortages and rising costs make higher electric rates inevitable.

But the countless uses for electricity in remote rural areas are built on the promise of dependable power at its lowest possible price. Keeping that promise is a tradition with the member-owned rural electric cooperatives.

Neinda Philosopher Fills Up His Letter With Collection of Summer Odds and Ends

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One this week gets rid of a few odds and ends. Must be the summer heat.

Dear editor:

According to what I read the other day, to run for President it takes a paid staff of around 250 people. That's more people than it took to run the entire government 200 years ago.

Some more odds and ends:

Jerry Terrell Elected to Rural Electric Board

Jerry Terrell of Stamford was elected to the board of directors of the Texas Member Services Association during the statewide organization's annual meeting in San Antonio last week.

Terrell is a member service manager of Stamford Electric Cooperative, a position he has held since 1970. He was previously a line-man for the Cooperative. TMSA is a professional-improvement organization of member and community services personnel of Texas' 80 rural electric systems.

Terrell is a native of Haskell County and a graduate of Paint Creek Rural High School. He's a member of the Lions Club and the First Baptist Church in Stamford.

He and his wife, the former Barbara Bryant of Stamford, are parents of four children: Mrs. Dickie Cooper, Mrs. Douglas LeFever, and Douglas Terrell, who have their own homes in the Stamford area, and Christi, 10, who lives with her parents.

Some outfit has taken a public opinion poll to see what people think of public opinion polls. Thirty-six per cent said they thought they were worthless. This is bad news, as I was just getting ready to save the country some money by proposing a poll on whether or not there's life on Mars. Personally I doubt if there is, not even microscopic life. People might be willing to live on a planet where the temperature drops to 122 degrees below zero at night and rises to only 40 below in the daytime, but microbes have more sense.

Politicians, like generals who want to fight the next war with the weapons of the last one, are usually behind the times in their figures of speech. They're still talking about sweeping out Washington with a broom in this vacuum cleaner age. Also, some of them every once in a while will say electing so-and-so would be like using a fox to guard the chickens, when no super-market manager would think of turning one loose in the frozen food department. I don't even know how this figure of speech got started. Even when chickens were kept in a hen house, no farm-

Inez Helms has returned after three weeks in Kelo, Wash., visiting her three children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Howell, Mrs. Peggy Snider and Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Helms and children. Mrs. Helms' daughter, Sandy Howell, and children Jackie, Sheri and Jason, brought her home and will visit here two weeks.

sprinter, too, with a 9.5 in the 100 as his best time. But he says, "No way I'm gonna challenge him to a race. He's way too fast for me. I really feel I could beat my 9.5 if I did nothing but work on track, but even if I did that it would be out of the question about beating him."

What Jones wants is a full season of health. He had never had any problems with injuries until last year. When they hit, they hit. He dislocated an elbow in late July while playing in the Texas High School All-Star game in Fort Worth.

"That really got me off to a bad start. It slowed down my conditioning. They (coaches) really made me take it easy early in the year. I was so anxious to get back in there that I cut loose too soon. The first play I run I pull a hamstring. I think it's well and I pull it again.
